

SILVER BALTIC LAUNCHED IN IZZI IN LATVIA

December 14th 2009

Popular Baltic movie channel Silver Baltic was launched in Latvian operator Izzi. Channel is available for all digital network subscribers in Thematic package Filmas from first week of December 2009. Silver Baltic has Latvian and Russian subtitles.

In December Silver will have premieres of movies like, French comedy "Heading South", Australian comedy "Footy Legends", Swedish comedy "Shit Happens" and Irish drama "Eden". In January 2010 there will be premieres for movies from UK, comedy "Trainspotting", thriller "Shallow Grave" and US comedy "You Can Count On Me".

Silver Baltic is high quality channel of independent movies. Channel was launched first in Estonia in Elion IPTV network in exclusive basis for Estonia, followed by Baltkom in Latvia in April 2009, in February 1st 2010 the channel will be launched also in Lithuania.