

SHOWTIME BALTICS ENRICHED WITH HIT FILMS FROM TWENTIETH CENTURY FOX TELEVISION DISTRIBUTION

Deal with Twentieth Century Fox Television Distribution enriches the action loaded channel Showtime Baltics with a range of thrilling blockbusters for the fall season.

NonStop Television recently closed a deal with Twentieth Century Fox Television Distribution for Showtime in Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania. The deal contains star studded blockbusters like "William Shakespeare's Romeo + Juliet" with Leonardo Di Caprio and Claire Danes, "The Thin Red Line" with Sean Penn and Adrien Brody, "Bad Girls" with Andie MacDowell and "Ladyhawke" with Michelle Pfeiffer.

The first FOX titles will premiere on Showtime in October 2010.

NonStop Television's Showtime is a niche film channel that presents the best of action, thrillers, science fiction and other related genres from past decades. A cavalcade of excitement and adrenaline-rushing action 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

"We are happy to start working with FOX for Showtime Baltics. The FOX line-up strengthens the channel which is up for a great season this fall," says Ignas Scheynius, CEO of NonStop Television.
